

SUKOSOL CLAN CROON FOR CHARITY

Songstress Kamala Sukosol and her talented family will be giving a charity concert entitled Give Heart, Give Life at the Siam City Hotel on Feb 24.

The Ramathibodi Foundation and Siam City Hotel are organising a charity gala dinner and concert entitled Give Heart, Give Life this month, featuring entertainment by matriarch Kamala Sukosol and her talented family.

The event, a fundraiser for Thai children with liver disease, will take place in the hotel's Kamolthip Ballroom on Feb 24, at 6:30pm.

The audience can look forward to a fantastic selection of jazz numbers, Broadway hits and pop songs, as well as all-time-favourite Sukosol classics like Live & Learn and Sak Wan Neung as crooned by the Lady of Swing herself, Kamala, and musical members of her family: Marisa Sukosol Nunbhakdi, Krissada Noi Sukosol

Clapp, Daranee Sukosol Clapp, Sukie Sukosol and Natalia Sukosol Briones.

Joining them will be vocalists Rudklao Amratisha, Dolchai Boonyaratavej and Tanee Poonsuwan along with the 20-member Prachin Songpow Big Band Orchestra, under the direction of Piti Kayoonpan. They will be accompanied by talented performers from the Aree School of Dance Arts, led by Acharn Aree Sahavejjabhand.

All proceeds will go to the Liver Transplant from Parent to Child Programme. To donate directly to the Ramathibodi Foundation, call 02-201-1111.

Call Siam City Hotel on 02-247-0123 ext 1916—8.